

Grieralm - Höllensteinhütte

pedestrian - moderately difficult

5 hours

Grieralm - Höllensteinhütte

⌚ 5
hours

• 7
600m

⚓ 1.912

📍 14km

Ⓒ
moderate

Description

- This moderately difficult trail takes you to two major alpine huts within walking distance from Hotel Höhlenstein, which offers a place to relax and unwind with its own farm and rich selection of local specialties. The trip is most suitable during the summer months; in winter there is time-controlled traffic for toboggan tracks.

🍴 Food/refreshments

The trail is not demanding and it offers two perfect refreshment and dining options - Grieralm and Höllensteinhütte. All you will need to take with you is something to drink and a small snack.

What to take

- Trekking shoes
- A small snack
- A raincoat
- Trekking poles
- Navigation materials, map

Photos

📈 Profile

Grieralm - Höllensteinhütte

pedestrian - moderately difficult

5 hours

Start of trail

The trail starts and ends in front of Hotel Höhlenstein. The trip can be made easier by driving up to Grieralm (or Höllensteinhütte).
GPS: 47°8'28"N ; 11°42'56"E

Trail description

1340m JUNS

You start out from Hotel Höhlenstein on the sidewalk along the road towards Hintertux. After about 400 meters, there is a turning point to the bridge over the Tuxerbach River (Fig. A). Right after the bridge you turn left, and after roughly 0.5 km you go upward to the right along the marked road No. 24 to Grieralm. The journey can be shortened by crossing a local farm. However, if you are afraid of coming into direct contact with cows, you should walk around the farm.

1787m GRIERALM

There are two options for going up to Grieralm. You can go on the maintained, slightly rising gravel path. This path is longer, but it allows for a quiet walk through the Tyrolean landscape. The second path leads through the woods. It is shorter but steeper, on a narrow footpath with lots of stones. This path is chosen by those who seek the beauty of almost untouched Tyrolean nature and do not mind a steep hill. The ascent takes about 2 hours, a little less if you choose the forest path. You will be welcomed in front of Grieralm by a gate to "Natur paradise" (Fig. B)

Grieralm itself is a popular destination for both locals and tourists. In this alpine "oasis" you can replenish the energy you lost with the help of Tyrolean specialties in the form of food and drink. After refreshments, you can use the sun loungers overlooking the snow-covered mountain shields and relax.

1740m HÖLLENSTEINHÜTTE

From Grieralm, you will walk for about another 20 minutes up the hill around Lake Griersee. This path is pleasant. Most of it runs along a narrow footpath; it is not demanding and it offers many resting benches. The descent will lead you to Höllensteinhütte, the last stage of which is quite steep.

Höllensteinhütte (Fig. E) is a large restaurant with accommodation, its own farm and a large terrace. Women in local folk costumes offer tourists Tyrolean specialties and a perfect place to sit and relax.

Grieralm - Höllensteinhütte

pedestrian - moderately difficult

5 hours

The road splits after Höllensteinhütte (Fig. F). You can either take the steeper, narrower forest path or a longer but slightly broader gravel path, winding in a serpentine manner. After about half an hour you will reach the Tuxerbach River, and you walk along it to reach our hotel Höhlenstein in Juns.

1340m JUNS